TAZ ACTION!

Hot-tempered TAZ is Marvin the Martian's favorite Rare Earth Creature. TAZ is kidnapped by Marvin the Martian's spaceship, zipped off to Mars, and caged in a zoo!

But Taz isn't about to sit around and be stared at by Instant Martians. No way! He's OUTTA THERE!

Use TAZ's moves and special attacks to make your escape. While you're at it, spin into as many space creatures as you can, turning them into space dust. That'll teach Marvin the Martian to mess with the wrong Earthling!

LIVES

TAZ starts with 3 lives. When his health bar drains, he loses 1 life. If he loses them all, the game ends.

HEALTH BAR

Some Health drains from the bar whenever TAZ is hit. Eat snacks (page 8) to restore TAZ's Health. If the bar empties, you lose 1 Life.

SNACKS

TAZ must eat to stay healthy. But watch out! Some junk food just isn't worth the trouble!

- First-aid kits restore some of TAZ's Health.
- Gasoline fuels TAZ's temper. Let TAZ swallow a can, then press the ACTION button for a blast of hot breath that melts metal!
- With a mouthful of ammunition from a box of rocks, TAZ can spurt a barrage of stones when you press the ACTION button.
- Bubbling beakers contain a potent mixture that turns TAZ into Jumbo TAZ. He's big, tough and snarly. He's also too heavy to spin! Some bubbling beakers will shrink TAZ to mini-size!
- Bombs explode. If TAZ eats one, he'll explode, too!

MORE GREAT ITEMS

- Transporters zap TAZ to another part of the level.

- Steer TAZ through a shrink ray and watch him melt down to mini-size! He's small enough to fit through low tunnels. Growth rays expand TAZ to his jumbo size.

- Find a crate and you've made it through the maze. Jump in to escape to the next level!

PLANET MARS

MARS ZOO

TAZ is trapped in a cage on Mars, along with a menagerie of strange animaloids. Spin to break through the walls, and boomerang from wall to wall to get higher. Springy, hanging cages hold more dangerous creatures. A maze of loop-de-loop pipes keeps TAZ spinning! Use the TAZ 360 move to defeat the giant elephant.

MOLEWORLD

Spin through a world that's half above and half below the ground. Bump off molemen and avoid grotesque ore worms and spinning drill bits. TAZ turns into a drill bit himself to burrow through the ground, all the while pursued by a giant drilling machine that forces him to keep moving or perish! Jump onto speeding bits of falling rock while battling a flying mining machine!

PLANET X

On yet another strange planet, TAZ confronts bizarre aliens in a water-drenched terrain. Ride looping vertical waterfalls through a seemingly endless maze, jumping onto dry land at just the right moment!

Find the Whirly Copter to fly up the vertical maze. One false move and TAZ will hit the drink! Knock the Drago-Worm down to size to defeat him and escape!

MEXICO

Yosemite Sam, Road Runner and Wile E. Coyote appear to head our hero off at the pass! But first TAZ must survive a fast-moving, dusty, horns-and-hoof-filled wagon train stampede! In the village, killer bees, bandidos and a rampaging bull make the pottery fly! TAZ must lure El Toro into charging the walls so he can escape!

THE HAUNTED CASTLE

TAZ spins and hops along the outside of a murky castle, raising and lowering the gates while battling annoying Flying Eyeballs and nasty Killer Bees. Once inside, TAZ spins through revolving doors into secret passages and huge spiral towers. Bubbling pools, sizzling walkways, flaming nozzles and great green gobs of goo fill the castle. Witch Hazel and Yosemite Sam provide even more misery for the tortured TAZ. The Mad Scientist shoots sparks while huge Gossamer chases TAZ back and forth. Stun the monster, then trade brains to finally defeat the Mad Scientist!

MARVIN THE MARTIAN'S HOUSE

Eighty-five percent of all accidents happen at home. Marvin the Martian's House is no exception, with K-9 and an army of laser-shooting robots as live-in hazards. TAZ falls into the trash compactor and must ricochet up the closing walls in the nick of time! Then a duplicating device turns TAZ into twins! One TAZ must jump off the other one's head to escape. A barrage of laser beams and weird gravity make this a real brain-boggler! Marvin the Martian drives a huge Pedmobile that can only be defeated by an attack to its top!

TIPS FROM TAZ

- Use the TAZ Tornado to smack many of the enemies. They'll disappear in a puff of Martian smoke. Some foes are tougher to beat than others. Don't give up!
- Not all enemies can be destroyed by a TAZ Tornado. Some can only be destroyed by fire or rocks. Some can't be destroyed at all!
- TAZ has a number of special powers and transformations, but they all last only a short time. Make the most of them while you have them!
- As you play each game, try to remember your way through the mazes so you know where to find the power-ups and exits.
- Use your spin to move quickly through some areas, especially if you know the way.
- When you see food or odd items scattered around, try to figure out how TAZ can use them.
